

CODAN Rx™

Mixing and Withdrawal Products and More for the Hospital Pharmacy

CODAN Rx™

You can depend on the high quality CODAN Rx™ product line to ease the mixing and withdrawal process of compounded products.

CODAN spikes provide a high level of safety for the pharmacist against drug exposure, ensure accurate drug compounding and promote conservation of the reconstituted products.

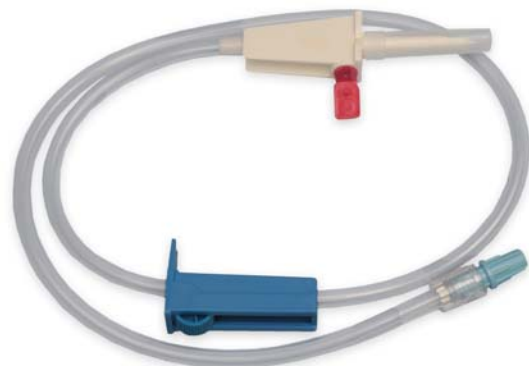

CODAN transfer sets, the unique line of spikes and other mixing and withdrawal products are designed for a large variety of substances including cytotoxic drugs.

The risk of bacterial and particulate contamination during drug preparation and withdrawal is minimized while accomplishing the process with a high level of accuracy.
